

As the respected industry standard, the Australian Office Market Report allows property professionals to review trends in the supply of and demand for office space in Australia.

The Subscription includes the July 2010 Office Market Report, the Spring 2010 Market Forecasts and the Spring 2010 Quarterly Development Survey.

Covering approximately 4,500 office buildings in over 30 office markets around Australia, the report includes historical data since January 1990 for total stock, vacancy, supply, withdrawals and net absorption, with a comprehensive list of future supply and development details.

The Report is available in Microsoft Excel and will be distributed via email. To subscribe please complete the order form below.
