

DIVISION BREAKFAST

DO GREEN BUILDINGS MAKE DOLLARS AND SENSE?

Thursday 23 September 2010
7.15am for 7.30am – 9.00am

ZINC @ Federation Square
Melbourne

Members & Guests
$77.00 per person

Non Members
$99.00 per person

The common claim is that green buildings incur a green premium. However the trade off is that green buildings deliver a suite of financial and environmental benefits that conventional buildings do not.

This claim will be put to the test with 3 stellar examples of innovative commercial properties.

Do green buildings deliver financial positives?

Do green buildings increase productivity?

Overall, do green buildings make financial and sustainable sense?

Speakers include:

Paul Crapper, Building Commission on Goods Shed North
Lindsay Bevege, Business Outlook on 500 Collins Street

Moderated by:

Mark Allan, Sustainability Committee Chairman

More speakers to be announced!
